

Name _____

Climbing The Pronoun Ladder

Directions: Read each sentence carefully. Choose who or whom to complete each sentence correctly. The sentences get trickier as you climb the pronoun ladder, so think carefully about whether the pronoun is the subject or object of the action.

1. _____ is knocking at the door?
2. To _____ did you give the completed homework assignment?
3. The student _____ raised her hand first answered correctly.
4. _____ are you planning to invite to the movie night?
5. The scientist _____ discovered the cure worked for years in silence.
6. The teacher praised the group _____ worked hardest on the project.
7. The coach wanted to know _____ the team selected as captain.
8. The person _____ you met yesterday is my cousin.
9. The journalist, _____ the editor admired greatly, won the national award.
10. The director could not remember _____ had written the scene that impressed everyone so much.