

Name _____

Who's The Culprit

Directions: Read each sentence carefully and choose the correct pronoun (who or whom) to complete it. Think about whether the pronoun is acting as the subject of the verb (who) or the object of a verb or preposition (whom). Circle the correct answer.

1. To (who / whom) did the teacher give the extra assignment?
2. The student (who / whom) we admired most was chosen for the debate team.
3. I can't remember (who / whom) we saw standing near the old library steps.
4. The mystery writer, (who / whom) many readers praised, released another bestseller.
5. The hikers, one of (who / whom) forgot their map, still managed to find the trail.
6. For (who / whom) should I save the last piece of cake?
7. The scientist (who / whom) we heard speaking at the conference inspired us all.
8. I wonder (who / whom) the judges will select for the top prize.
9. The new employee, with (who / whom) I collaborated on the report, was promoted.
10. The teacher rewarded the students (who / whom) studied the hardest this term.