Teacher's Guide

- Differentiation Tips:
 - Read statements aloud and pause for discussion before students answer.
 - Provide a brief review of key figures and events beforehand using a timeline or simple summary.
 - For students needing extra support, allow them to work in pairs to discuss their reasoning.
- Engagement Ideas:
 - Turn the activity into a "WWII Fact Showdown" where students move to opposite sides of the room for True or False.
 - Encourage students to correct false statements in their notebooks using accurate information.
- Extension Ideas:
 - Have students write one additional true and one false statement based on what they learned.
 - Link this activity to geography by having students locate where each major event occurred on a blank world map.
