

Name _____

Courage At Home

Directions: Read each description of how people helped during World War II. Write the correct action: rationing, victory gardens, or factory work, that matches each situation.

1. Sarah's family used special books filled with stamps to limit how much sugar, gasoline, and meat they could buy. _____
2. Mr. Lewis turned the empty lot behind his house into a place to grow vegetables to help feed his family and neighbors. _____
3. Clara worked in a plant assembling airplane parts to help the soldiers overseas. _____
4. Many Americans learned to sew or repair old clothes instead of buying new ones. _____
5. Posters encouraged people to grow their own food to leave more supplies for soldiers. _____
6. Workers like Rosie the Riveter showed women could handle tough, skilled labor jobs. _____
7. Families collected metal scraps, rubber, and cooking grease to help produce war materials. _____
8. Citizens carefully tracked their household fuel use so there would be enough for the military. _____
9. Thousands of people moved to industrial cities to build ships, planes, and tanks. _____
10. Neighbors shared produce from their gardens to reduce the strain on grocery stores. _____