Teacher's Guide

- Use this worksheet to reinforce how pronouns signal point of view. Encourage students to circle the pronouns in each sentence before choosing an answer.
- Support emerging readers by previewing the pronouns I, you, he, she, they and explaining how each one helps identify the narrator.
- Provide differentiation by offering a simple chart listing each point of view with example sentences. Students who need extra help can reference it while working.
- Extend learning by asking students to rewrite two sentences in a different point of view. This helps them understand how perspective changes the voice of the narrative.
