

Constraint Builder: Make It Precise Answer Key (Sample Rewrites)

1. After (Sample Rewrite): Write a 3-paragraph informative article about endangered animals, using simple language for middle school students, written in a serious tone.

- Length: 3 paragraphs
- Tone: Serious
- Style: Informative article
- Audience: Middle school students

2. After (Sample Rewrite): Write a 2-paragraph explanation of how thunderstorms form, from the perspective of a weather reporter, using vivid and exciting language.

- Length: 2 paragraphs
- Tone: Exciting
- Style: Report
- Perspective: Weather reporter

3. After (Sample Rewrite): Write a one-page review of your favorite meal, written in a humorous tone, from the perspective of a famous food critic, including at least two sensory details.

- Length: One page
- Tone: Humorous
- Style: Review
- Perspective: Food critic

4. After (Sample Rewrite): Write a 5-paragraph essay that explains how smartphones have changed daily life, including at least three benefits and two drawbacks, written for high school students.

- Length: 5 paragraphs
- Style: Essay
- Constraints: Three benefits, two drawbacks
- Audience: High school students

5. After (Sample Rewrite): Write a 500-word short story about a robot who wants to be human, told from the robot's perspective, with a hopeful tone, and ending in a surprising twist.

- Length: 500 words
- Perspective: Robot narrator
- Tone: Hopeful
- Style: Short story