

Name _____

A Kitchen Scene

Directions: Read the basic paragraph below. Rewrite it by adding specific sensory details based on what could be observed in the scene. Replace vague words with clear, vivid descriptions. Keep the meaning of the paragraph the same but make it more precise and descriptive.

The kitchen was nice. People were busy, and there were lots of sounds and smells. The food looked good, and everyone seemed to like being there.

Identify the Vague Words: List the words or phrases that are too general.

Observational Details: List sensory details you could observe in a kitchen scene.

What you might see:

What you might hear:

What you might smell:

1.

1.

1.

2.

2.

2.

Rewrite the Paragraph: Use your notes above to write an improved paragraph with vivid, observable sensory details.