Teacher's Guide

- Explain that facts in the story come only from the passage, not from imagination.
- Model one question by rereading the exact sentence that proves the answer.
- For support, allow students to finger track each matching sentence.
- For engagement, have students whisper read the passage with a partner before answering.
- For differentiation, reduce the number of items to four for emerging readers.
- For extension, ask students to write one new detail that is not in the story and test a classmate.
