

Name _____

Where Does It Fall?

Directions - Read each situation. Write its letter in the best section of the continuum.

1 = Minor Conflict, 2 = Hurtful Behavior, 3 = Bullying, 4 = Dangerous or Urgent

Bullying Behavior Continuum

1 Minor Conflict → 2 Hurtful Behavior → 3 Bullying → 4 Dangerous/Urgent

_____ → _____ → _____ → _____

Situations

- A. A student threatens to post a private locker-room photo unless another student gives them money.
- B. Two friends argue about which movie to watch, but neither try to hurt nor control the other.
- C. A student laughs once when a classmate gives a wrong answer.
- D. A group repeatedly removes Noah from its gaming chat and adds him back only to insult him.
- E. Two students disagree about who should present their group project.
- F. Someone creates a fake social-media account using a classmate's name and posts embarrassing messages.
- G. A student makes one rude comment about another student's haircut, then apologizes.
- H. An older student blocks a younger student's path every morning and demands snacks.
- I. Two teammates become annoyed and blame each other after losing a game.
- J. A popular student repeatedly tells others not to sit with Ava at lunch.
- K. A student shares an AI-edited picture to embarrass a classmate, and it spreads around school.
- L. A student sends a message saying, "You will be sorry tomorrow," along with a picture of a weapon.

Circle the situations that need immediate adult help.