Fix It for Real: The Apology Repair Plan

Sample Answer Key

Answers will vary. Strong responses should clearly name the behavior, avoid excuses, offer a realistic repair, and describe a specific future change.

1. Group Chat Screenshot

Name the harm: I shared Cam's private message and embarrassed him.

Take responsibility: It was my responsibility because I chose to post it without permission.

Repair the damage: I will delete the screenshot, ask others to delete it, and apologize to Cam privately.

Change next time: I will not share private messages without permission.

2. Lunch Table Exclusion

Name the harm: I excluded Nia and encouraged others to leave her out.

Take responsibility: It was my responsibility because I used the group to punish her instead of talking to her.

Repair the damage: I will apologize, invite her to sit with us, and correct what I told the group.

Change next time: I will speak directly and respectfully when I am upset.

3. Gaming Blowup

Name the harm: I insulted Eli and blamed him in front of the team.

Take responsibility: It was my responsibility because losing did not give me the right to attack him.

Repair the damage: I will apologize in the team chat and ask the others to stop piling on.

Change next time: I will take a break before posting when I feel angry.
