Teacher's Guide

- Begin by reviewing the -ft blend and reading the word bank together. Have students clap the final sound to reinforce hearing the blend.
- Provide picture cues or small cards with each -ft word for students who benefit from visual support while completing the story.
- Challenge advanced learners to write a new final sentence using another -ft word not in the story.
- Build engagement by letting students illustrate one scene from the completed story to reinforce comprehension and vocabulary.
