Directions: Read the story. Underline or highlight all -ft words. Then answer the questions.

Mila climbed up the wooden ladder to the loft above the garage. Inside, she found a soft blanket and an old gift box. She lifted the box and set it on a small raft she used for pretend adventures. When she opened the box, she saw a craft she had made last summer and smiled.

1. Where did Mila go at the start of the story?

2. What did she find that felt soft?

3. What did she set on the raft?

4. What made her smile at the end?
