Teacher's Guide

- Preview the -ft blend with students by reading a short list of sample words and having them identify the ending sound.
- Offer highlighters or colored pencils so students can mark -ft words clearly. For students who need support, read the story aloud once as they listen for the blend.
- Challenge advanced students to rewrite two sentences from the story using different -ft words while keeping the meaning similar.
- Build engagement by placing the story on chart paper and having students come up to underline -ft words one at a time during whole-group review.
