Teacher's Guide

- This worksheet blends short-story reading with final blend identification, helping students locate -mp patterns in connected text.
- Support early readers by previewing each -mp word before reading, or by echo-reading the story sentence by sentence.
- Encourage students to use finger tracking as they search for -mp words, reinforcing print awareness.
- Extend learning by asking students to write a new sentence using two -mp words, or have them illustrate one scene from the story and label it using an -mp word.
