

The Camping Trip (-NT Blend Reading Comprehension)

Last weekend, Brent and his sister went on a camping trip. They set up their tent near a quiet stream and made a small plant garden by the rocks. Brent bent a few branches to make a frame for hanging a lantern. While his sister sent a text to their parents, Brent spotted an ant crawling on his backpack. It reminded him of the time he accidentally burnt his marshmallow during their last trip!

Later that night, they heard a strange noise in the woods. It gave them a hint that an animal might be close. Brent wasn't scared - he stayed calm and lent his flashlight to his sister so she could see. They both sat inside the tent, listening quietly. Soon, the sound faded, and they went to sleep under the stars.

Questions - Choose the Best Answer:1. Where did Brent and his sister set up their tent?

- A) Next to a plant shop B) Near a count of trees
C) Beside a quiet stream D) In front of a big ant

2. What did Brent bend to make a lantern frame?

- A) Flint stones B) Branches
C) A metal print D) A garden hint

3. What did Brent see crawling on his backpack?

- A) A burnt stick B) A red ant
C) A shiny coin D) A small tent

4. Why did Brent lend his flashlight to his sister?

- A) So she could hunt bugs B) Because she fainted
C) So she could see D) Because it was mint-flavored

5. What clue made them think an animal was nearby?

- A) A torn tent B) A loud chant
C) A dropped grant D) A strange hint

