

The Scrapbook Mystery

Read the passage:

Maya loved collecting photos and tickets to make her travel scrapbook. One day, she opened her drawer and saw that many of her pictures were missing! She searched her room, scrambling through her books, bags, and boxes. She even got a scraper to look behind the furniture.

Then Maya saw her little brother scribbling with crayons. “Where did you get that paper?” she asked. He pointed to a pile of cut-up photos. Maya let out a loud screech and quickly took the scrapbook pieces from him.

Later, she calmed down and helped him make his own book using paper scraps. They spent the afternoon scribbling and laughing together.

Comprehension Questions:

1. What kind of scrapbook was Maya making?
2. What did Maya use a scraper for?
3. What made Maya screech?
4. How did Maya solve the problem with her brother?
5. Find two /scr/ words in the story related to writing.

