Teacher's Guide

- Review how the -st ending sounds. Say it clearly and have students repeat it before starting the worksheet.
- Encourage students to blend the onset with -st after writing it, helping them build confidence in decoding.
- For students who need more support, provide a sound box or have them tap each sound as they blend.
- For students ready for a challenge, have them write a short sentence using two completed -st words or brainstorm new ones that end with the same final blend.
